PSP/RTKL Request N° 2018-0982

Dear Mr. Larson:

On October 19, 2018, the Pennsylvania State Police (PSP) received your request for information pursuant to Pennsylvania's Right-to-Know Law (RTKL), 65 P.S. §§ 67.101 – 67.3104, wherein you state: "Police reports from incidents occurring in Centralia, Pennsylvania, between January 1st, 2015 and the date this request is fulfilled. In 2017, Centralia.org reported that PA State Police officers were patrolling the town, which has been almost completely abandoned, due to ongoing mine fire." A copy of your request is enclosed. By letter dated October 26, 2018, you were notified in accordance with RTKL section 67.902(b) that PSP required an additional thirty days to prepare this final response to your request.

On its face, your request is denied as insufficiently specific. The request lacks specific information, such as incident number, names of the individuals involved, or specific address, necessary for PSP to ascertain which records are being requested. The RTKL requires that a request for records be made with "sufficient specificity to enable the agency to ascertain which records" are being requested. 65 P.S. § 67.703; Kantrowitz v. Great Valley School District, OOR Dkt N° AP 2009-0646; and Mollick v. Methacton School District, OOR Dkt N° AP 2009-0180.

Outside of the RTKL and without waiving any exemptions, please be advised that PSP Incident Reports aka "Police reports" are not a public record under RTKL. The RTKL defines a "public record" as "[a] record . . . of a Commonwealth or local agency that: (1) is not exempt under section 708; (2) is not exempt from being disclosed under any other Federal or State law or regulation or judicial order or decree; or (3) is not protected by a privilege." 65 Pa. Stat. Ann. § 67.102. Additionally, dissemination of PSP Incident Reports would violate Pennsylvania's Criminal History Record Information Act (CHRIA), 18 Pa. C.S. §§ 9101-9183, which prohibits criminal justice agencies from disseminating investigative information, except to other criminal justice agencies. 18 Pa. C.S. § 9106(c)(4).

To the extent that your request seeks or may be construed to seek records involving covert law enforcement investigations, including intelligence gathering and analysis, PSP can neither confirm, nor deny the existence of such records without risk of compromising investigations and imperiling individuals. UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES, therefore, should this response to your request be interpreted as indicating otherwise. In all events, should such records exist, they are entirely exempt from public disclosure under RTKL and CHRIA.

You have a right to appeal this response in writing to the Office of Open Records, 333 Market Street, 16th Floor, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania 17126-0333. Appeal forms are available on the OOR website: <https://www.dced.state.pa.us/public/oor/appealformgeneral.pdf>. If you choose to file an appeal, then you must do so within 15 business days of the mailing date of this response and send to OOR:

- 1) this response;
- 2) your request; and
- 3) your reasons for believing that the record is public (a statement of the grounds you assert for the requested record being a public record), as well as for believing the agency has wrongly withheld the record from disclosure (a statement that addresses any ground stated by the agency for the denial). If the agency has given several reasons for withholding the record, then indicate which ones you believe to be wrong.

Respectfully,

Lissa M. Ferguson

Ferguson Verification

PENNSYLVANIA STATE POLICE DEPARTMENT HEADQUARTERS

VERIFICATION OF
LISSA M. FERGUSON
DEPUTY AGENCY OPEN RECORDS OFFICER

I, Lissa M. Ferguson, Deputy Agency Open Records Officer of the Pennsylvania State Police (PSP or Department), am authorized to prepare this verification on the Department's behalf in response to PSP/RTKL Request N° 2018-0982. Accordingly, on this 26th day of November, 2018, I verify the following facts to be true and correct, to the best of my knowledge or information and belief:

1. I am familiar with PSP/RTKL Request N° 2018-0982, which is attached to this verification:
2. The request is insufficiently specific because it fails to provide me sufficient facts to determine which records are sought and whether, on review, any part of the request constitutes a public record requiring disclosure.
3. Specifically, PSP cannot identify the records sought from the information provided because the request lacks specific information, such as incident number, names of the individuals involved or specific address, to ascertain and retrieve the requested records. Absent additional information, PSP cannot pinpoint the repository to search.
4. Outside the RTKL, and without waiving any exemptions, requestor was advised that PSP Incident Reports, also known as "Police reports", are exempt from disclosure under section 708(b)(16) of the RTKL and the Criminal Records History and Information Act (CHRIA).

I understand that false statements made in this verification are subject to penalties of 18 Pa. C.S. § 4904, relating to unsworn falsification to authorities.

To Whom It May Concern:

Pursuant to the Pennsylvania Right to Know Act, I hereby request the following records:

Police reports from incidents occurring in Centralia, Pennsylvania, between January 1st, 2015 and the date this request is fulfilled. In 2017, Centralia.org reported that PA State Police officers were patrolling the town, which has been almost completely abandoned, due to an ongoing mine fire (<https://www.centraliapa.org/police-now-patrolling-centralla-pa/>).

The requested documents will be made available to the general public, and this request is not being made for commercial purposes.

In the event that there are fees, I would be grateful if you would inform me of the total charges in advance of fulfilling my request. I would prefer the request filled electronically, by e-mail attachment if available or CD-ROM if not.

Thank you in advance for your anticipated cooperation in this matter. I look forward to receiving your response to this request within 5 business days, as the statute requires.

Sincerely,

Lucas Smolic Larson
